Professional Liability Insurance Solutions for Architects, Engineers and Contractors

For more than 50 years, the Lexington Architects & Engineers (A&E) team has provided market-leading professional liability insurance solutions to meet the specialized needs of the design and construction industry. The Lexington team provides tailored insurance coverage for your architect, engineering and contractor clients, backed by experienced underwriting, market-leading risk management and dedicated claims service.

Coverage Highlights

- Minimum premium of $5,000
- Primary or excess limits, up to $5 million each claim
- Quota share options available
- Flexible retention levels
- Worldwide coverage territory with ability to provide local policies through AIG Multinational
- CrisisResponse® available to help protect reputational risk
- Early resolution incentive available
- Extended reporting period (tail coverage) available
- Notice of circumstance reporting trigger
- Contractors Pollution Liability coverage available (claims made or occurrence)
- Rectification costs coverage available
- Contractors Protective Indemnity coverage available

Class Appetite

Most Desired Classes

- Architects
- Construction Managers
- Design/Build Contractors
- Engineers
- Expert Witness Consultants
- Forensic Consultants
- General Contractors
- Interior Designers
- Specialty Contractors
- Trade Contractors

Restricted Classes

- Aerospace
- Chemical Engineering
- Engineer/Procure/Construct Contractors
- Environmental Contractors
- Naval/Shipbuilding
- Product Design

Size, Scale and Experience

Lexington Insurance is one of the largest Excess & Surplus Lines insurance carriers in the United States. It has more than 50 years of experience servicing companies and organizations of all sizes and industries. Lexington can tailor insurance solutions for most any risk.

Dedicated Team and Expertise

Lexington underwriters have deep expertise in providing professional liability solutions to meet the needs of architects, engineers and contractors. With flexible forms and rates, the team can tailor insurance solutions with ease of process and fast turnaround.

Risk Management and Claims Services

Lexington and its partners provide holistic risk management benefits to mitigate exposure and reduce costs including contract review services, risk management webinars, and risk management advisories. Its dedicated claims team includes lawyers and engineers with broad experience providing claims services to architects, engineers and contractors.

Contact:

If you have questions about Lexington's professional liability solutions for architects, engineers and contractors and available products, please contact:

Christopher Bresnahan

Head of Lexington Architects & Engineers

christopher.bresnahan@aig.com

(617) 330-4441

For additional information regarding risk management services for architects, engineers and contractors, please contact: riskmanagement@aig.com.

LEXINGTON INSURANCE

An AIG company

2023 BEST'S REVIEW
Standing the Test of Time
Rated A or Higher for 75 years
BEST