Additional Baggage

To purchase additional baggage at any of our rates, go to www.volaris.com or contact our Call Center. Check prices in the Additional Service Rates section at www.volaris.com, or contact our Call Center.

B) For interline flights

The applicable baggage policy shall be based on the rate and route chosen as provided in paragraph A) above.

C) For interline flights

For codeshare flights, the baggage policies that apply throughout the itinerary will be the ones of the marketing carrier.

D) Baggage Liability

The airline operating the segment where any baggage is damaged or lost shall assume sole liability for any such damage or loss.

Check the Passenger Air Transport Agreement for information about compensation in case of loss or damage of your baggage, which shall be subject to the applicable laws and regulations and to the international treaties.

Flight Delays

Regarding flights originating with in Mexico, the Civil Aviation Law (Ley de Aviación Civil) and the Volaris compensation policy may apply. For more on these provisions, go to the "Legal Information" section of Volaris website at www.volaris.com.

In case of delays in flights originating outside Mexico, the provisions of the Montreal Convention or the laws of the country of the flight of origin operating the segment in question shall apply.

Overbooking or Flight Cancellation

Flights originating in Mexico and Central America

In case of overbooking or flight cancellation (for reasons attributable to the airline), the provisions of the applicable law in the country of origin shall apply in accordance with the following:

Volaris shall inform its Customers of any changes in their itinerary, through the contact information provided by the Customer, as soon as Volaris becomes aware of the contingency.

In the case of flight overbooking, the operating airline shall call for volunteers wishing to give up their seats in exchange for benefits agreed directly with the passenger. Passengers with a disability, the elderly, unaccompanied minors and pregnant women shall be given boarding priority in substitution of volunteers.

In cases of flight cancellation, and at passenger's option, the following shall apply:

- i. Reimbursement of the ticket price or the part corresponding to the flight segment not flown.
- ii. Providing, by all means possible, substitute transportation on the first available flight and providing, as a minimum and at no charge, telephone or cable communication services (making phone calls and sending e-mails) to the point of destination, and meals, in accordance with the waiting time before boarding a new flight; accommodation at a hotel of the airport or city where an overnight stay becomes necessary and, in the latter case, ground transportation to and from the airport.
- iii. Transportation on a later date, convenient to the passenger, to the destination for which boarding was denied.

In the cases of sections I and III above, the Airline shall also pay the affected passenger a compensation that shall be no less than 25% (twenty-five percent) of the ticket price of the flight segment not flown.

For flights originating in the United States of America

For flights originating in the United States of America, passengers shall be provided with alternative transportation and/or compensation, according to the provisions of the regulations issued by the U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT).

For Interline and Codeshare Flights

If the selling airline has issued tickets that exceed the available capacity of the aircraft or the flight is canceled for reasons attributable to said airline, resulting in the denial of boarding to the passenger, it must, depending on the applicable legislation of the point of origin, adopt the necessary measures so that, as far as possible, the effects of said denial of boarding to the affected Customer are mitigated.

Any costs incurred as a result of the denied boarding shall be borne in full by the operating airline of the segment where the overbooking and/or cancellation took place.

Changes and Cancellations

Tickets are not refundable. If you fail to board your flight or if you fail to request a change within the time frame set out below, your flight, as well as its value, will be lost without responsibility to any of the operating airlines.

Name changes are allowed (for a fee) up to 4 hours before the departure time of the flight you intend to change by paying the corresponding charge. Visit www.volaris.com or contact our Call Center for costs and policies.

For Central America, changes to flight dates where the point of origin of the original booking remains the same, are allowed up to 4 hours before the departure time of the flight you intend to change, by paying the corresponding change fee and the fare difference, if any.

Change your flight through our Call Center, website, the Volaris App or at Volaris' counters at the different airports where Volaris operates. Visit www.volaris.com or contact our Call Center for costs and policies.

For flights with origin/destination from and to the United States, changes and cancellations are allowed in the following cases:

1. If the ticket was bought 7 (seven) days or more in advance of the flight scheduled date.
2. If cancellation is requested within 24 hours after the ticket was purchased.
3. In the case of flight changes, the corresponding fare difference must be paid.

If you purchased your flight with our codeshare partners, please review such airline's terms and conditions with respect to changes and cancellations. If the selling airline issues tickets that exceed the available capacity of the aircraft or the flight is cancelled due to causes attributable to such airline and results in boarding being denied to the passenger, the selling airline, depending on the applicable legislation of the point

For flights with origin/destination in Colombia, in the event that the customer has a round trip or connecting flight and decides not to use the first (one-way) segment of their flight or the segment prior to the connection, he or she must notify Volaris if they will fly in the next segment.

The notification must be made before the departure of the flight corresponding to the first segment or an hour after at the latest, through our Call Center or at the airport counters.

In case of not complying with what is indicated in the previous paragraph, Volaris may dispose of the reservation made for the subsequent segment to the connection and/or the second segment (return) of the flight, as the case may be.

The right of withdrawal:

For flights with origin in Colombia and Peru

The customer may withdraw from the trip at least 24 hours process before the flight, if he or she has not completed the check-in, notifying through our Call Center, at the check-in airport counters, or by raising a ticket at the following link:

<https://tuexperiencia.volaris.com/hc/es>

In these cases, Volaris is entitled to retain an amount of money corresponding to 10% of the value received as a fee, excluding rates, taxes and administrative fees. The retention made to the customer will be made in favor of Volaris. The provisions of this section shall not apply in the case of promotional fees.

In the event of withdrawal, Volaris will order the corresponding refund to the financial institution, if applicable, within a term that does not exceed 5 (five) business days following the customer's request.

Volaris will refund the amount in a maximum term of 30 (thirty) calendar days from the reception of the request of withdrawal notified by the customer. The refund will be made in the original form of payment or through wire transfer.

If the customer contracted through a travel agency and withdraws from the trip by notifying the agency, the travel agency will proceed to refund the money of the customer once Volaris provides the corresponding amount, without prejudice to the term of 30 (thirty) days established in the previous paragraph for the refund of the money to the Client to become effective.

Right to Cancel:

For flights with origin in El Salvador, Colombia, and Guatemala

The customer that has made the purchase of his or her ticket through any means other than at the sales counter of Volaris located at the airport is entitled to exercise the right of retraction in a maximum term of 8 (eight) business days after having contracted the service, provided that he or she has not completed the check-in process.

The customer may exercise his or her right of retraction by notifying Volaris through our Call Center, at the airport counters, or by raising a ticket at the following link: <https://tuexperiencia.volaris.com/hc/es>

Volaris will refund the amount in a maximum term of 15 (fifteen) calendar days from the reception of the request of retraction notified by the customer, without proceeding to make discounts or withholdings for any concept. The refund will be made in the original form of payment or through wire transfer.
